

STATE

COUNTY

TOWN OR VICINITY

✓ CALIFORNIA

Monterey

Monterey
516 Polk Street* 10s
7p
6d

INDEX NUMBER

MONUMENT

CAL 27-MONT, 20

Casa Amesti

HABIT

C. 1834

REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE

H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.

Cal 143

History - A lithograph shows the house as $1\frac{1}{2}$ stories in 1842 and records describe at 2-story adobe in 1855. A typical Monterey house restored by Frances Adler Elkins in 1919 and turned over to the National Trust for Historic Preservation in 1953.

PUBLISHED
PHOTOGRAPHSPUBLISHED DRAWINGS

* neg of sheet 5

GARDON

FN-77

Description - A two-storied adobe building $41\frac{1}{2}$ feet wide by 84 feet long with balconies

BUILT 1825 BY DON JOSE AMESTI. IN 1848 HE GAVE IT TO HIS DAUGHTER WHEN SHE MARRIED MCKINLEY

HANNAFORD. SPANISH COLONIAL, ADODE ARCH, p. 22, 23, 24, 25 on both long sides, of refined and well-proportioned details. Simple wood shingle hipped roof. Typical room to room plan. Redwood trim, plaster ceiling first floor, random width painted wood second floor. Walled garden with service building.

References- Hoover and Rensch, Historic Spots in Calif.,
Vol. 3.

Vallejo Papers, Bancroft Library

Jeans, W.J., Architectural Remains of Old
Monterey

Master of Arts Thesis, U. of Cal. 1917, Berkeley

Authors of Card - Charles S. Pope and Kenneth Cardwell

HABS National Park Service Sept. 1958